now take the liberty of inclosing to you such documents as I can at present obtain in order to Contradict an assertion fraught with malice & design. The low state of the Treasury, together with Mr. Amblers particular characters, I was induced to advance them the nominal amount of their claims, wh - was thankfully acknowledged. These friendly Transactions have been Commented on by men who are unworthy of my notice, & whose suspicions merit your Contempt They have attempted to convert these friendly exertions into negotiations of profit & gain. My acquaintances who live in distant parts of this State, have frequently required my assistance in the disposal of their public & private papers, which I have always attended to without receiving any emolument whatever, and should have conceived myself unworthy of their acquaintance had I withheld my friendly assistance. This may have given rise to the prevailing report, & shall esteem as a singular favour if you will communicate it to the members of your honorable Board, & flatter myself they will agree with me that it is a malicious & groundless assertion. Had I time I could procure many other documents in support of my friendly aid, which has been so grossly misapplied by some censorious persons

Relying on your disposition to redress the wrongs of an injured person, I rest assured you will have that justice done me — I hope you conceive I deserve

Thomas Carter, Surgeon.

From the papers in the Revolutionary War Pension claim, R.12974, it appears that Thomas Carter served as Surgeon's Mate from May 27, 1779 to Feb. 17,1780. IN 1780, he was appointed Surgeon in the Corps of State Cavalry under Major John Nelson. In 1782, he was placed in the Legionary Corps under Lieutenant Colonel Charles Dabney, Virginia Troops and served until Feb. 8, 1783, when he became a supernumerary. He was again called into service and served until all the troops were discharged, no further details given.

He died in 1800 leaving a widow(name not ~~given~~ shown), who survived him a few months and the following children:

James Brodnax Carter; John Michell Carter;Rebecca Brodnax Stanard (formerly Carter) Jane Maria Carter Mrs. Lucy Gray Edmunds Boyd, wife of William B. Boyd.

All were living in 1832. In 1850, Mrs. Lucy G. Boyd was residing in Medon, Madison County, Tennessee.

Virginia Half Pay was allowed on account of the service of Dr. Thomas Carter.
